I prepared a list that contained all of the CPL ineligible and all of the LCCMR prohibited and ineligibles, and forwarded that list to LSOHC staff and to the Chair. The CPL list was slightly more comprehensive and descriptive than the LCCMR list, although there were 2 things on the LCCMR list that weren't included on CPL. The list you'll be seeing tomorrow is the comprehensive merged list from both sets.

I merged the lists, partly because I was interested to see where the differences lay, and partly because given the nature of some of LCCMR's "ineligible" but not "prohibited" expenses, I didn't want any applicant to assume that the exclusion of an item from a "prohibited" list was intended to convey approval of the expense.

Re: Agenda Item 5 - my motion was to include the LCCMR list of PROHIBITED expenses, not 'ineligible' expenses (short list on bottom of column 2 on LCCMR handout used during our Exec Comm Mtg).
